

Northrop Grumman, Aerospace Systems

Cummings Research Park, Huntsville, Alabama

portfolio

4Site worked with developer Colonial Properties Trust to provide site design and construction implementation for an $80 million project for Northrop Grumman Corporation. This is Phase I of a five-building complex located in Cummings Research Park in Huntsville. The facility is home to over 1,200 local employees and provides laboratories, integration labs and research development centers for the Kinetic Energy Interceptors and mobile, land-based missile-defense system divisions of Northrop Grumman.
